

ON BOARD

BY-THE-MINUTES REPORT

MAY 2017

Incumbents return to Board

The votes were canvassed and results showed Dr. Mark Reid defeating Eddie Vowell 316 to 69. Dr. LaVelle Hendricks ran unopposed in the May 6 School Board election.

In other action, the Board approved:

- Guaranty Bank as the school depository
- set dates and times for the 2017-2018 board meetings
- TASB Local Policies AF, DBA, DCA, DNA, DNB, EB and EEB
- employed Clinton Farrell, teacher/coach and Jenna Farrell, ACW teacher.

Special Olympics athletes were recognized by the Board for their performance at the CISD Special Olympics track meet at Texas A&M University-Commerce.

Bill Whisenhunt, store manager at Walmart, was recognized for the $2000 Walmart donation to the Special Olympics track meet. Chartwells Food Service and GCA Custodial Services also contributed to the event.

Valedictorian Claire Dobbs and Salutatorian Rachel Scarcelli were recognized by the Board.

Aubrey Clayton, Emma Dobbs and Travis Grasser were recognized for their high performance on the Duke University Seventh Grade Talent Search for scoring at or above the national average of recent high school graduates on at least one part of the ACT or SAT. Not pictured is Meghan Green.

CHS student La'darrin Wady (right) was recognized by Superintendent Charlie Alderman for the compassion and kindness he exhibited by researching and obtaining special shoes for a special needs student.

ON BOARD

The Board recognized the CHS track team members who competed in regional and one state event. Competing were Jacob Ladd, Casey Shields, Isaiah Askew, Devante Miller, K.D. Williams, Daniel Collins and Jordan Miller (not as pictured). They were coached by James Mills.

Ag students fared well at the Hunt County Fair.. Students were recognized by the Board of Trustees for their top-rated animals. Winning awards were Marcus Rogers, Holten Pemberton, Canyon Smith, Sarah Coffman, Hunter Pemberton, Hannah Pemberton, Tori Belcher and Jennifer Stephenson. (not at pictured)

Ausrine Sartauskaite, left, shown with Coach Colton Reynolds, placed fifth in UIL regional tennis.

Brooklyn Mathews, left, shown with Coach Shelley Jones, competed at the UIL regional meet in pole vault.

BOARD MEETINGS

7:00
3315 Washington
Mon . . . 6/13